Cancer Services' Tribute Dinner features Lacey Adams

Fort Wayne, IND. – Cancer Services of Northeast Indiana will hold the Tribute Dinner on Thursday, September 15, 2022, 6 p.m. The event features Lacey Adams, an outspoken advocate for skin cancer awareness and prevention. Lacey is an Indiana native married to Jerome Adams, the 20th United States Surgeon General.

Tribute Dinner, A Night to Remember, is an opportunity for the community to honor or remember people touched by cancer, as well as thank the caring and talented medical professionals in our community who care for cancer patients.

Cancer Services also will announce this year's Champion of Hope, an award given to an individual who embodies Cancer Services' mission to improve the quality of life of those affected by cancer.

The Tribute Dinner is a special evening for Cancer Services and the community. Money raised at the event pays for programs and services to help thousands of people with cancer in Northeast Indiana.
